

Unity Servant's Pledge

Key Verse:

Matthew 20:28 “Just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve and to give His life as a ransom for many.”

Key Value:

We can best serve Christ by serving others He places in our path

Key Truths; A spirit of true service is a great witness for Christ and what we desire to reflect during the Unity Festival. Many thousands will come to our event, at different places in their spiritual journey, but all needing to experience the love of Christ, to know the joy of His forgiveness and grace, to see an example of how Christ can change a life.

While we have always had hundreds of volunteers, we believe that the most accurate name for each of us is Servant and so we plan to emphasize this in many ways this year.

Our hope is that everyone's experience can be enhanced by making a conscious commitment to be Servants and not just volunteer workers. To that end, we are asking each volunteer in 2011 to take the added step of pledging to be the best servant they can be, in whatever job they are doing.

The Pledge:

Seeking to glorify God, honor his Son Jesus and bring others closer to Him, I pledge myself to take on the heart, attitude and actions of a Servant while working at Unity 2011. I will strive to follow Christ's example (Phil. 2) and humble myself, seek to help others in a loving way, respond to problems with kindness and patience, look for ways to encourage both our guests and my fellow servants and to pray for the Holy Spirit to be the keeper of my spirit, words and actions throughout the festival.

I will commit to following the servant leadership that is in place for my assigned area, contributing but not complaining, seeking to be a blessing by cooperating and giving my best effort to carry out my duties in a positive and excellent manner.

I will place the needs of others before my own and carefully consider how I can truly show the love of Christ to each person through the way that I do my work.

With Christ's help, I pledge myself to be a Servant at Unity:
